

REMOTE/ VIRTUAL PANELISTS

The information provided on this page is for panelists who are US citizens, participating remotely or virtually. This is defined as a meeting participant who has written a review and who for various reasons did not participate on-site. The participant participated via teleconference, videoconference, webcast, or online forum. A meeting participant participating in a panel that is completely held via teleconference, videoconference, webcast, or online forum. They are also referred to as Type 3 panelists/participants.

Remote panelists will receive $200 for each meeting day.

Return to Registration, Reservations, & Reimbursements